

Wall-Holla is a perfect solution where the space is limited but high capacity needed. It grows vertically and offers 5-6 times more play space than a playground of the same surface area, naturally making the safety area required smaller. The Dutch Design Award nominated play structure is also a great centerpiece. The high, see-through structure provides an exciting experience for play.

|                              |                                   |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| User age                     | 5+                                |
| Number of users              | 30                                |
| Product length, mm           | 11500                             |
| Product width, mm            | 1250                              |
| Product height, mm           | 4902                              |
| Impact area, m <sup>2</sup>  | 72                                |
| Max. free fall height, mm    | 2470                              |
| Installation time (for 1), H | 96                                |
| Foundation options           | Deep mountingSurface mounting |