

All the necessary tools for a full service carpenter's workshop or a service garage. The Master's tools play panel boosts creativity and encourage children to learn problem solving and social skills. Play walls train proprioception, tactile and visual senses as well as eye-hand coordination and fine motor skills. The play panel is available in eight different colours.

Colour of walls and HPL

