The Moominhouse is a beautiful and cozy home for the Moomin family, and an iconic focal point in Moomin stories. Inside the house, the ground floor kitchen has many activities: cooking and baking, searching for ancestors and sliding out right from the window! The middle floor is for playing with friends and recalling Moominpappa's travels. It is also an entrance to Moomintroll's room on the top floor, which has a great view over the Moominvalley, and a stunning tube slide down to the yard! One side of the house is partially open, allowing inside activities to be seen from outside. Here you can also find the exciting climbing section to the second floor and upwards.
