

FAIRY'S WATERFALL (ASTM)

The US175592 product complies with the ASTM Standard. Fairy's waterfall provides more challenge than meets the eye at first. The ropes are "living" and thus the nets and rope ladders are responsive to every movement. The stable beams and branches encourage climbing, too. This product can be used in many ways, as a meeting point or for exercising. Without specific entry or exit points it is good for social interaction and communication, as well as for hanging out with friends.
